

Climax: The story reaches a critical turning point; tension has reached its highest point.

Rising Action: Characters are faced with problems; characters must continually overcome problems.

Falling Action: Tension eases and issues start to get worked out in the story.

Exposition: Characters & setting are introduced.

Resolution: Everything gets worked out and the story

